

Cabrillo College

Honors Transfer Program Events 2018-2019 Updated October

Stanford field trip to the Cantor Arts Center

With Professor Michael Mangin

All honors students are welcome to join the History 4AH class on Oct. 18th
Interested? Email Prof. Mangin (mimangin@cabrillo.edu)

Film Night

This film, based on the 2005 novel by Nobel Prize-winning author Kazuo Ishiguro, will serve as a bridge from our 2017-18 Cabrillo Reads! Text Frankenstein and this years' Cabrillo Reads! The Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Wednesday, October 24th 5:30 – Room 319

+

Transfer Workshop and Pizza Friday with Carolyn Jackson
Transferring in fall 2019? Then you need to attend this workshop!
We will cover how to address your participation in the Honors program on your UC application and much more!
Friday, October 26th – noon to 1:30 – SAC East 225

Join the Honors Transfer Student Club!

This student club will be organizing social events, study groups and peer-to-peer mentoring, in addition to other activities.

Watch your email for information about the next meeting.

Bay Area Honors Research Symposium 2018

Applications for the 12th BHC Symposium will be due 2/14/2018

The symposium will be on May 4th, 2019 at Stanford!

Interested in attending or presenting?

then Enroll in Honors 1H this fall with Dr. Schessler!

This is a late starting .5-unit class that meets 2:20-5:10 on 10/3, 10/17 and 10/31.

Cabrillo Reads! The Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Cabrillo students and faculty will join together to discuss the UDHR and reflect on the 70th anniversary of its adoption by the United Nations General Assembly.

Stay tuned for our first event.

Interested? Email Letitia Scott-Curtis to get involved.

Questions about the Cabrillo HTP or ideas to share?

Contact Transfer Program Lead Honors Faculty Letitia Scott-Curtis

lescott@cabrillo.edu

Office: 427C--TuTh: 11:10-12:30; Tu 4:35-5 pm; Th 2-3:15; & by appointment